As the Caribbean Region continues to grapple with less than desirable educational outcomes, one of the recognized critical success factors for effective educational institutions is the quality of leadership.

This webinar will examine the relationship between transformational leadership, school culture and school effectiveness in Jamaican secondary schools. It is based on ground-breaking research currently being conducted by our guest presenter, Ms. Dorrett Campbell, Deputy Chief Education Officer in the Ministry of Education, Jamaica, and doctoral student at the University of the West Indies, Mona
