The complex policy issues facing Caribbean governments and organisations, such as the COVID-19 pandemic and climate resilience for example, require robust data analysis, to inform the policy decision process. This webinar will be seeking to address the importance of data analysis and visualization to the policy management process. Our guest presenters will be Hon. Minister Melford Nicholas, MP, Minister of Information, Broadcasting, Telecommunications and Information Technology, Antigua & Barbudam and Mr. Leslie Lee Fook, Director - AI, Analytics and Automation at INCUS Services Limited.
